COMPREHENSIVE BIOSTATISTICS WORKSHOP ON REGRESSION AND SURVIVAL ANALYSIS: A two days comprehensive workshop on “Regression and Survival Analysis” was conducted by Mr. Alok Anand, the founder of TechMedBuddy. The workshop was conducted offline on 23rd February, 2024 in the college premises and online on 24th February, 2024. The participants got a brief introduction to Biostatistics and its methodology. In the workshop Mr. Alok taught the basics of Python including variables and their data types, different types of errors, tuples, nested conditions, different libraries and directories in Python. The participants also got a peek into various plots like box plots, density plots, scatter plots and various tests like t-test, ANOVA, f-test, etc. In the online session, he explained regression analysis and an introduction to survival analysis. The session was further joined by Ms. Shailya Verma, a PhD scholar from NCBS, Bengaluru who gave an insight into bioinformatics and its future scope.
