

Microbiology - Department activities

2017-18

S.no	Name of the activity	Page No
1	Technical Fest - Plexus	1
2	Seminar- Introductory lecture on Science	1
3	Seminar- Future and Scope of Microbiology	2
4	Educational visit to Moon Beverages	2

1. The Departmental fest 'Plexus' was conducted (26th -27th October, 2017) along with the Department of Biomedical Sciences and Department of Biochemistry. The department organised the event Questerium. Dr. Anil Aggarwal (Prof. Maulana Azad Medical College) and Dr. G.S. Sodhi (Associate Prof. SGTB Khalsa College) were invited to give talks regarding applications and scope of Forensic Sciences. Approx. 100-150 students from all three departments and other colleges attended the event.

2. The Department of Microbiology and Biochemistry organised an introductory lecture on science by Dr. S. Lakshmi Devi, Ex-Principal, Shaheed Rajguru College of Applied Sciences for Women on 3 November, 2017. Approx. 100 students attended the talk.

3. The department organised scientific talk by Prof. Yogendra Singh, Dean Research (Life Sciences), University of Delhi, (former Scientist, IGIB) on the topic 'Future and Scope of Microbiology' in Shaheed Rajguru College of Applied Sciences for Women, on 27th February, 2018. Approx. 100 students attended the talk.

4. An industrial visit to Moon Beverages, Sahibabad was organised by the Department of Microbiology on 30th March, 2018, giving detailed knowledge to the students about different aspects of beverage manufacture, packaging, quality control and waste treatment. 33 students along with teachers visited the facility.

