

Inklings: The Literary Society Activities 2016-17

Inklings was established by a group of literature enthusiasts to bring together all other people who liked to express themselves using words. These people then branched into Bloggers, Poetesses, Fiction Writers, Debaters, Orators etc and now are working hard, to make this group, this society known to the plethora of talent, that is Delhi University.

Quintessence — An open mic spoken word (slam poetry event) was organized by our society on 18th February 2017 in our college campus. The event saw a great footfall of students hailing from different colleges like Jamia Millia Islamia, Jesus and Mary College and even school students were given chance to speak their heart out. It was organized in collaboration with 'The Scribbled Stories' and the participants spoke on thoughtful topics ranging from feminism to fantasizing romance
