

MUKHAUTA: The Dramatics Society

Mukhauta, The Dramatics Society of Shaheed Rajguru College, is committed to illuminating critical social issues in India, fostering awareness through thought-provoking performances. In addition, Mukhauta has built a distinguished legacy of producing comical stage plays that leave audiences in fits of uncontrollable laughter. With steadfast support from our convenors, the society plays a crucial role in performing impactful nukkad-nataks throughout the campus, inspiring and engaging the community. Furthermore, Mukhauta has proudly showcased its talent across Delhi University and outstation colleges, gaining recognition from directors nationwide. The members of Mukhauta dedicate themselves to rigorous daily rehearsals on the college grounds, refining their craft and continuously pushing the limits of artistic expression.
