Chairperson's Message

नारीशक्ति शक्तिशाली समाजस्य निर्माणं करोति ।

(Women empowerment can make the society powerful)

Greetings!

An institution is only as good as its people. With the right blend of sincerity and commitment, the team of Shaheed Rajguru College of Applied Sciences for Women (SRCASW) has taken the College from a modest beginning in 1989 to become a top-ranked institution as vibrant as the rich history from where it gets its name.

Named after Shaheed Shivaram Hari Rajguru, an Indian revolutionary who fought for the independence of our great nation, the College has embodied the same values of discipline, perseverance and “Love for the nation” in all its people. As we celebrate “Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav” marking 75 years of Independence, we also feel proud of contributing to the empowerment of women and growth of the society through education.

Women have multiple, essential roles in the sustenance of every society and nation. We strive to inculcate the right blend of humane values and academic excellence in every student of our institution so that while taking up leadership roles across the globe, they also remain compassionate caregivers.

Learning is never-ending and we try to instil the love of learning and ignite the spark of curiosity in every young mind that joins our institution. The COVID19 pandemic poised several challenges in the learning process. Our teachers adapted to the situation and did an outstanding job with online teaching, ensuring that the academic progress continued unabated for every student. The National Education Policy, NEP 2020 has reinvigorated the education system and I congratulate all the stakeholders for working painstakingly to implement it in the College.

We will continue to work on new innovative pedagogies to give a truly experiential experience to our students and enable them to realise their potential. At the same time, we will augment and upgrade our existing infrastructure and facilities to increase the spectrum of academic activities. Collaboration with other institutions and industry will also be encouraged.

Besides academics, the college has a plethora of extra-curricular and co-curricular activities, student societies and clubs that facilitate peer- learning, social engagement and showcasing of diverse talent. Our outreach programs have successfully created connections with the society.

We remain committed to realizing the transformational power of education with inclusivity and equality and to nurture young minds for a sustainable future.

Best wishes to the entire Rajguru team for the coming year!
