Shivram Hari Rajguru

(24 August 1908 — 23 March 1931)

Shivram Hari Rajguru was born in an average middle-class Hindu Brahmin family at Khed in Pune district in 1906. He came to Varanasi at a very early age where he learnt sanskrit and read the hindu religious scriptures. At Varanasi, he came in contact with revolutionaries. He joined the movement and became an active member of the Hindustan Socialist Republican Army (H.S.R.A). Rajguru had fearless spirit and indomitable courage. The only object of his adoration and worship was his motherland for whose liberation he considered no sacrifice too great. He was a close associate of Chandra Shekhar Azad, Sardar Bhagat Singh and Jatin Das. His field of activity was U.P. and Punjab, with Kanpur, Agra and Lahore as his headquarters. Rajguru was a good shooter and was regarded as the gunman of the party. He took part in various activities of the revolutionary movement, the most important being the murder of british police officer, J. P. Saunders at Lahore in 1928.

Sardar Bhagat Singh, Rajguru and Sukhdev were tried for Saunders' murder. They were convicted and sentenced to death. Rajguru along with his two comrades was hanged in the Lahore jail on the evening of 23rd March, 1931. At the time of his martyrdom, Rajguru was hardly 23 years of age.
